Fell alittle short for me, but i liked it

By Krystal Cruz

I already knew about everything that was in this book. Ive watched Teen Mom from the beginning and nothing really surprised me or got me excited. It was a little bland. Nothing like the other Teen Mom girls... but i kinda liked it nonetheless. I just wanted to know more about her and this book didnt deliver that Bulletproof was not the right title for this book. I have always loved Maci more than the other Teen Moms but i do not recommend this book. You survived teenage pregnancy with rich parents and rich "inlaws", that doeant make you bulletproof. You should have absolutely no complaints about the life you have lived. It has been a cakewalk compared to the other girls. They actually had something to write about. The other girls actually faced real issues in their life: addiction, rape, poverty, death of a loved one. You faced relationship drama. That's not being bulletproof.

Disappointed.

By AMANDA

Let me start my saying Maci is my favorite out of the OG teen mom's. With that being said, I feel I already knew almost everything in this book. There were times it was repetitive and sort of jumped around a bit. I felt myself skimming through a lot of it. I can definitely tell this is her first book but why didn't the publishers do a better job looking over it before printing it. I was very excited for this release date and was disappointed.
