DIFFERENT FOR GIRLS BY JACQUIE LAWRENCE PDF

Enter a world where love, sex and suspense meet betrayal, cruelty and heartbreak. Fran and Cam, thrown joyously together again after a heartbreak split, find their future unexpectedly compromised by the consequences of a random act Cam committed during their time apart. Meanwhile Gemma and Jude, newly in love, are torn apart by Gemma's fake fiancé whose horrific secret Jude has just discovered. Then there is Brooke and Nicola, married for seven years, whose future is threatened by something ominous and sickening that they seemingly have no control over. This is the world where the survival of love is all that matters, and a world where being different is ultimately the new normal.

Good fun read

By terez osztafi

So many clichés, so many gay stereotypes and so many designer labels..... seriously?

Money money money!

The sex scenes made me cringe a bit!

Good fun read, though. Found it by accident in my charity shop, 75p well spent.

The L Word - Gen Next!

By Katherine Greenberg

As one of the creators of the L-Word, I read this with immense interest, voraciously and with a degree of joyous envy as Jacquie Lawrence has brilliantly imagined a sophisticated, complex, seriously funny and moving portrait of a group of women in West London; their loves lost, won and tried to the fullest.

Tales of the City 2.0!

By lucian

This book is a hilarious romp! It has the energy and pace of Armistead Maupin's Tales of the City, but transplanted to London. Super fun.
