GMO is the poignant, insightful tale of beaten down, mid-level food scientist Gordon Miller Osborne. Depressed by his life and abused by his boss, Gordon contemplates suicide, but decides against it at the last minute, only to become involved in a work related accident that could end his career. When Gordon's overbearing boss finds out about the accident and the superpowers it created in Gordon, he insists on following the strict corporate protocol of the mammoth food company they both work for. After all, those powers were created on company time, they belong to the company. Can things get any worse for Gordon? You'd be surprised.

GMO is a short story.

Good Reading

By Nicole Lee

Since I am concerned about health, this was a good choice of something to read on my kindle. I recommend this reading to anyone concerned about Genetically Modified Foods.

Please CONTINUE!!

By David Ridgway

This was a VERY exciting super hero story! It kind of played like a Saturday afternoon serial with an open ending that makes you WANT to hear more about Jamie and Gordon next Saturday! I would like to see more installations to this story!
