Nice, but no Billboard Book

By John Jones

This is an informative book and a great piece to have in conjunction with the Billboard Top Pop Singles book which chronicles the US Top 100 songs. The Billboard books have a much better layout and far more information on the artists so the Virgin book is best as a companion piece.

review my purchase

By Warren E. Farley Jr.

the book arrived at the earlier end of the delivery window and was in perfect condition. the book is not has great as the joel whitburn billboard books but it is a meat and potatoes of the chart action and that is all I needed. if you want to know chart postions and entry dates for british hit singles, then this is the book for you.
